

THE DURNANT CASE
Another Female Crank Appears At the Prison.

THE PRISONER MORE CHEERFUL
Miss Turner's Evidence Caused the Defendant to Look Very Pale and Anxious.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—There were several new witnesses produced at the examination of Durnant today, and all of them brought the Emmanuel church murder closer to him or cut away the alibi on which he is supposed to be depending to save himself. It was foreseen in the morning papers that Durnant would try to prove he had been at the medical college and the city and county hospital attending lectures at various times when the prosecution holds he was with Minnie Williams. The roll call showed he was there right enough, but yesterday the other medical students who were at the Emmanuel church at the time of the murder testified that they were not at the college and that Durnant was not there.

Hodgdon, the Southern Pacific claim adjuster, was another new witness. He saw a man he thinks was Durnant, wearing a suit of black cloth, on the porch at Clark Morgan's house talking to Minnie Williams on the Monday preceding the murder. Durnant's height and general appearance was that of the man, and his face was very similar, but that he was the man neither of the girls would swear, though they were evidently quite satisfied of it.

Durnant has taken to watching the witnesses. He looks at them steadily from the time they mount the witness stand until they leave it. His look expresses absolutely nothing. It is not hostile, pleading, indignant, incredulous, surprised, angry, envious, hopeful or despairing.

Whether his testimony is strong against him or only inferentially accusing, his expression is the same. There is a hint of sullenness about his face, and the dull eyes under the thick eyebrows and the heavy jaw. He talks very little to his lawyers, says absolutely nothing to the crowd that craves and strains to see him, and wishes the witnesses would hurry up and get on with the trial.

Another female crank appeared this morning. She presented herself at the prison and was admitted to see Durnant. She was a woman of about 40 years of age, with a face that was a mixture of cunning and madness. She was dressed in a black dress and a black hat, and she had a look that was very peculiar.

She had mixed up in several queer schemes since her exposure. A queer thing about the Fair will be the fact that she is still a different looking woman. She has a new look, and she has a new way of talking. She has a new way of looking at the world, and she has a new way of looking at Durnant.

Charles A. Duke and C. A. Dodge, also fellow students of Durnant, testified that they were at the Emmanuel church on the night of the murder. They were both at the church, and they were both at the time of the murder. They were both at the church, and they were both at the time of the murder.

INCOME TAX REHEARING
Consideration of Petitions Reserved Until May 6th

WHEN A FULL BENEFIT IS EXPECTED
The News Received at the Treasury Department With Much Satisfaction.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The United States supreme court today, through Chief Justice Fuller, made the following order regarding the petitions for a rehearing of the income tax question: "Consideration of the two petitions for a rehearing is reserved until Monday, May 6th, when a full benefit is expected, and at that time two counsel on a side will be heard at that time."

Although the order does not explicitly state it, it means that argument will be heard, not on the merits of the income tax question itself, but on the question whether or not there will be a rehearing of the suits heretofore decided.

CINCINNATI, April 23.—It is understood the decision of the court to permit oral argument of the motion for rehearing in these cases was not arrived at until today, and that this action was based on information received by the chief justice direct from Justice Jackson, indicating the probability of the court being able to attend a sitting of the court early in May.

After adjournment of the court today Chief Justice Fuller said he had received such information from Justice Jackson as to lead the court to expect the motion in Washington, and upon his statement upon the court by the day set for the argument of the petition. THE CREAMERY.
AN ENTERPRISE NEEDED IN THIS CITY.

It Will Be in Operation in a Few Weeks—On the Co-operative Plan.

The machinery for the creamery to be established in this city will arrive in a few days, and by the 1st of May or shortly thereafter the enterprise will be in operation. The company has bought a Sharpless cream separator, the best made on the coast. The carpenters are at work fixing up the rooms on the first floor of the Spinnery building, at the corner of Merced and I streets, for the reception of the machinery.

This company was formed to work on the co-operative plan. All the milk men and dairy men in the vicinity of Fresno have stock in it. It is their purpose to use their own surplus milk in the creamery and turn out a product which will gain a reputation for good quality and thereby replace the cream butter which is shipped here.

The capacity of the creamery will be the milk of 2000 cows. But it is not intended to go on so large a scale at first. After this company gets going it will do so it will purchase milk from the farmers at a reasonable price.

The company will put in a first-class refrigerator, and expect the best days of summer to come. It will have a good butter-making machine, and the butter-making machine will be in operation in a few weeks.

There is no reason why Fresno should not make as good butter as any place in the state. It is the fact of the people who do not understand the art of butter-making. The creamery company will have an experienced man in charge of their butter-making. This new enterprise will prove of much value to Fresno.

A BAKERSFIELD LORD
Arrested on a Charge of Insanity

BECAUSE HE LOVED A DIVE GIRL
And Wanted to Marry Her—The Young Man the Son of the Marquis of Queensberry.

BAKERSFIELD, April 23.—Lord Sholto, C. Douglas, son of the Marquis of Queensberry, was arrested this afternoon charged with insanity. He is a fine looking young man, about 20 years of age, and has been here several months, having charges of forty or more belonging to the Marchioness, and since his arrival here, up to about a month ago, has been an exemplary young man.

A short time ago he commenced visiting Bakersfield and became infatuated with a variety actress, and soon became engaged to her. This morning he went to the clerk's office and obtained a license to marry her. His friends heard of it and had him arrested for insanity. He is now in the county jail.

Lord Douglas has been spending much of his time during the past week among the half-world of Bakersfield. Last night he gambled in one of the local variety theaters and lost about $200. He is infatuated with a young woman and dance artist named Addie, and several times during the week has proposed marriage. He spent about $50 on wine and gave her a marriage license as a present. The marriage license was applied for and took it to her. She told him she would have to wait till she became of age which would be in a few months.

Lord Douglas was interviewed this afternoon. He declared he did not love the Lord and what is more did not consider a marriage into his family at all an honor to her. If she married him at all it would be because he would like her and that she might escape the life she is now living. Miss Addie's true name is supposed to be Money. She recently came here from a convent in San Francisco and was placed in the hands of a man by her mother, who recently married the Broadway theater.

A week ago the theater was closed, and Miss Addie went to the Bijou, where she is now. She is a pretty girl, apparently 15 years of age, about five feet high, and has light blue eyes, dark brown hair and an innocent face. She would never be taken for a variety woman, and it is an open secret here that she is a girl of good family. It is believed she is a girl of good family, and it is believed she is a girl of good family.

VOL. IX, NO. 97

THE DURRANT CASE

Another Female Crank Appears At the Prison.

THE PRISONER MORE CHEERFUL

Miss Turner's Evidence Caused the Defendant to Look Very Pale and Anxious.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—There were several new witnesses produced at the examination of Durrant today, and all of them brought the Emmanuel church murder case to him or cut away the alibi on which he is supposed to be depending to save himself. It was fore-shadowed in the morning papers that Durrant would try to prove he had been at the medical college and the city and county hospital attending lectures at various times when the prosecution holds he was with Minnie Williams. The roll call showed he was there right enough, but yesterday the other medical students who answered for Durrant at roll call went on the witness stand and told of it.

Hodgdon, the Southern Pacific claim adjuster, was another new witness. He saw a man he thinks was Durrant, wearing a girl in the direction of Emmanuel church after 8 o'clock on the night Minnie Williams was murdered. He said he was sure enough for an ordinary business transaction. He would have paid money on the presumption that they were the same, but that was far as he would go.

About as strong was the evidence of the young ladies of Alameda who saw a man who looked like Durrant on the porch at Clark Morgan's home talking to Minnie Williams on the Monday preceding the murder. They saw a man and several appearances were that of the man at Alameda, and his face was very similar, but that he was the man neither of the girls would swear, though they were evidently quite satisfied of it.

Durrant has taken to watching the witnesses. He looks at them steadily from the time they mount the witness stand until they leave it. His look expresses absolutely nothing. It is not just, pleading, interested, incredulous, surprised, angry, grived, hopeful or despairing.

Whether their testimony is strong against him or only inferentially so, his expression is the same. There is a hint of sullenness about his face, due to the dull eyes under the thick eyebrows and to the heavy jaw. He talks very little to his lawyers, just enough to attend to the matters that come and go to see him, and watches the witnesses with stony unconcern. Today he showed signs of uneasiness. He looked better than on the day before.

The circle about his eyes were not as dark and there was some color in his face; but he is still a different looking man from the ruddy young soldier Detective Anthony brought back from Mount Diablo.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—There is little if any statement of interest in the Durrant case, and Judge Conlan's court was crowded today. It was the second day of the preliminary examination of Theodore Durrant for the murder of Minnie Williams. Durrant appeared a little more cheerful when he woke this morning. He had a good night's rest, and a good breakfast brightened him perceptibly.

Another female crank appeared this morning. She presented herself at the prison and was admitted to Durrant's presence, and after some conversation with him, most of which was devoted to her mouth and teeth, she went to the cell and went to Chief Crowley's office and said, "He is not the man." She said that she had looked at his head and neck, and was positive he was not the murderer. She said she was the Gypsy Queen, the most famous mind reader in the world. She was ejected by the officers without trouble.

Mrs. Williamson, the crank who created so much excitement yesterday, was hounding around the prison again today, but was denied admission.

A LETTER FROM LINDROSE.

He Considers the Labor Exchange as the Coming Power.

There being upon this side of the Atlantic no association organized upon the co-operative principle in its constitution and business method as directly to the point, plain and open in its operation, and working with as little machinery and dispensing with high-salaried officials, etc., as is done by the "Labor Exchange" of London.

There being in this country and elsewhere co-operative fruit and raisin canneries in operation with more or less indifferent success, would it not be well for these companies to become members of the Labor Exchange Association, now organized in twenty-three states in this country, and thus in a very short time reap the full benefit of co-operation, instead of, as these companies are at present doing, waiting around and making competing with each other, and fighting the commission packers and speculators in the selling of their goods?

All this unnecessary waste of strength and means, competition and fighting for existence, is entirely done away with in the Labor Exchange, the keynote of the whole system being true co-operation, equal rights and exact justice to every member of the organization; besides, the very business method and all the practical operations of the exchange make it impossible for commission men and speculators to harm the organization in any manner, shape or form, or advance their own interests, as now, at the expense of the toilers and producers.

The many beneficial co-operative features of the Labor Exchange cannot be dwelt upon in a newspaper or letter; so, in order that their co-operative companies, and all who desire a better and more just system of distribution and exchange of commodities might be fully informed by asking questions and by listening to explanations and answers, the "Lansing meeting" has been called at Kauter hall next Saturday at 10 o'clock a.m., and there will also be an evening meeting at the same place and date. Let all who desire a chance to work and who desire living prices for their commodities attend that meeting.

THE TERRY BLOCK.

The Board Rescinds Its Former Action.

WHY SCHOOL TO BE MOVED

Elen Chairman—Cummings Secretary—To Redress Insurance Rates—Offers of Agents.

The new city board of education last night took a decisive step, and took it right. The action in agreeing to purchase the Terry block was rescinded, and the white building is to be removed from the central block and the high school building is to go there.

The suddenness with which this action was taken was a surprise. The new board met and organized, Monroe taking his seat without opposition or objection. W. W. Eden was elected chairman and Cummings secretary, and the new body was ready for business. It came in the form of a resolution introduced by Trustee Monroe in the following language:

"Whereas, At a former meeting of this board, sitting as a board of education for the city of Fresno, certain proceedings were had whereby certain title was granted and given to R. B. Butler, trustee, for the purpose of erecting and constructing a high school building, which property is generally known and described as the Terry block, in the city of Fresno; and

"Whereas, After mature consideration it is deemed that the best interests of the inhabitants and citizens of the Fresno city school district, demand that no further time be granted for the purchase of said property; and whereas, it is of the utmost importance that there should be no further delay in the erection and construction of said high school and in the purchase of real property; therefore be it

"Resolved, That all proceedings had with reference to the purchase of the Terry block, and the same is hereby rescinded and annulled; and that said R. B. Butler be notified of this resolution, and that all papers of documents delivered by said R. B. Butler to this board with reference thereto be returned to him; and be it further

"Resolved, That all steps and proceedings with reference to the purchase of the Terry block be discontinued, and that this board do at once proceed to take all proper steps to procure other property suitable for the erection and construction of a high school thereon with all convenient speed, and that this board take all necessary steps to that end at once and without delay."

The resolution was carried by the vote of Eden, Cummings and Monroe, and that all papers of documents delivered by said R. B. Butler to this board with reference thereto be returned to him; and be it further
